

Thad Stevens, Of Gettysburg Led Fight For Free Schools

Impressive monuments to an essential freedom stand guard against the tyranny of ignorance all over the State of Pennsylvania today. Although those monuments honor the spirit of three men, now long dead, they are living monuments to a trio who contributed freely of energy, time and talent so that every Pennsylvanian might receive a liberal and gratuitous education.

The monuments are the free public schools of Pennsylvania. They are among the many great accomplishments of the State being honored during the Department of Commerce-sponsored observance, Pennsylvania Week, September 26 to October 2.

In these public schools, a hundred years hence, the children of the commonwealth will learn of the tragedies that convulsed the world of their forebears, and perhaps they will appreciate more deeply the wisdom and foresight of Timothy Pickens, Samuel Breck and Thaddeus Stevens, whose efforts had assured their birthright of free education.

Story of Struggle
This, briefly, is the story of how the birthright came to be won, and of the trio who did the fighting.

Timothy Pickens was the first to join the battle. During the Constitutional Convention of Pennsylvania in 1790, delegates sat in draughty committee rooms in Philadelphia and tempered the bitter cold of January with heated arguments over Constitutional provisions. At that point, Pickens brought on a storm of protest with his demand of the state government that they should assume responsibility for educating the children of its citizens.

His demand was rejected and his motion failed—but only for the time being. Other delegates, undaunted by the popular aversion to public education, pressed the issue and succeeded in writing into the Constitution an unsatisfactory but definite commitment in this direction. Although the Convention of 1776 had approved a vague and impractical plan for public schooling, until now, little had been done about it. Even now, the hopes of the sponsors were submerged in the hostile reaction that followed publication of the Constitution. On a whole, it seemed the people did not want free schools.

Limited To Rich
Education, in early Pennsylvania, had been limited almost exclusively to those who could afford to pay for it, either from private tutors or from the few established "Classical Schools" or "Academies." True, the various religious groups had organized their own parochial schools and in the metropolitan areas, at least, were educating many of their children. But on the whole the picture was pretty dark. Not until 1824 did the state get around to providing a workable public school plan, but even this was repealed three years later. Prior to this, in 1802, 1804, and 1809, several "Pauper Education Acts" had been passed—and universally scorned.

Under these acts, assessors were authorized to record the names of children between the ages of five and 12 years whose parents were too poor to pay for their schooling. These children would then be classified as "paupers" and admitted to free schooling. It is not difficult to (Please Turn to Page 7)

YWCA Has Long History Of Service To Community; Is Sharing In Chest Campaign

The Young Women's Christian Association, one of the six organizations for which funds are to be solicited through the Community Chest, has as its primary purpose the "building of a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians."

Working out that ideal in practice is the service the YWCA performs for the community. One of the most appreciated services is the use made of the front rooms of the YWCA building on Center Square. There any woman may go to rest while waiting friends, or just to get a second breath while shopping. And, by the hundreds, Gettysburg and county women take advantage of that opportunity. Rarely during the day is the parlor of the YWCA empty of people. There are always a few, sometimes many, surrounded many times by bags of merchandise, waiting for some friend, or waiting for some member of the family to arrive with a car, or resting before starting the journey home.

That service is the least publicized of the YWCA's activities. Another service is better known, the use of the YWCA building as a centrally located meeting place. Every week at least three or four organizations meet there. Committees from various organizations utilize it, Rotary meets there weekly. The National Conference of Christians and Jews uses its facilities. The Community Chest, in its formative stage, met there, and the parlors are always open to legitimate committees or groups for meetings.

In addition, the YWCA sponsors a number of organizations connected with the program of the YWCA and takes its part in promoting various activities throughout the community.

A brief history of the organization, which is scheduled to be given $2,000 for the coming year through the community Chest, follows:

Formed In 1926
The Young Women's Christian Association was organized in Gettysburg on October 22nd, 1926, with Mrs. Hadwin Fischer as chairman of the provisional committee. Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh presented a constitution which was adopted and Miss Maude Whitehead offered a resolution to incorporate. Miss Lily Dougherty served as secretary of the meeting.

BOARD GREETS NEW LIBRARIAN FRIDAY EVENING

Miss Anna F. Farran, new librarian for Adams and Franklin counties who began her duties this week, met for the first time Friday evening with the board of directors of the Adams County Free Library association. The meeting was the regular October session of the board at the main library, 135 Carlisle street.

Mrs. Lester O. Johnson, member of a committee from the Adams board that met with Franklin county representatives to work out details of the librarian-sharing plan between the counties, presented her report to the board. Under the contract agreed upon, she said, Adams county will pay two-fifths of Miss Farran's salary and Franklin, three-fifths. Transportation and telephone costs will be shared in the same proportion and Miss Farran will allot her time on the same basis.

Miss Farran indicated that a regular schedule will be worked out soon under which she will be in this county regularly two days each week and in Franklin county for three.

Plan Annual Meeting
Plans were discussed for the annual meeting of the library association membership to be held Tuesday, November 23. Annual reports will be presented and directors will be elected. Plans were made to combine the business session with a social hour in the nature of a reception for the new librarian. Mrs. Johnson was placed in charge of arrangements for the reception.

The board appointed John H. Knickerbocker to promote county-wide observance of National Book Week and expressed satisfaction with the county library display that was set up for the South Mountain fair. The selection of a chairman for the approaching annual membership drive outside of Gettysburg was discussed and the securing of a chairman was placed in the hands of Director O. H. Benson.

The employment of Mrs. Barbara Eves as a part-time worker at the library was announced. Bills totaling $602 were approved. Monthly reports submitted showed that book loans to the end of September total 69,573 for this year with all but about 15,000 of the loans being children's books. The board meets next on November 5.

SNYDER HEADS SENIOR CLASS

Students at Gettysburg high school went to the polls Friday in the annual elections for class officers.

The president of the student body and the athletic council representative were also named at the election, but no announcement could be made immediately of the results due to the fact that the freshmen class ballots will not be counted until Monday.

Because of other activities, the tellers scheduled to count the freshmen votes were unable to serve Friday afternoon and instead will do their work Monday afternoon. The ballots were locked up until that time.

Only the officers elected by the senior class had been posted by the tellers this morning. William Snyder was named as president of the class with William Cole as vice president; Lois Finkbeiner, secretary, and Janet McSherry treasurer.

Bruce Westerdaal had a slight edge over Donald Raffensperger in the vote for president of the student body by the seniors. Westerdaal had 60 votes and Raffensperger 53. ## GIVES TALK ON CONSTITUTION AT DAR MEET

Prof. Wallace Fisher, of the history department of Gettysburg college, spoke on "The Constitution and Its Significance" Friday afternoon at the first fall meeting of the DAR held at the home of Mrs. O. H. Benson, Gettysburg R. D.

The first half of Professor Fisher's presentation centered in the heroic drama that characterized the Constitutional Convention of 1787. In this he indicated the problems under the Articles of Confederation, sketched the personnel of those who met in Philadelphia, considered the question of sovereignty which haunted the convention, pointed out the practical compromises made, and described the fight for ratification which produced, of necessity, the First Ten Amendments.

The latter part of the address concerned itself with the significance of the document. He presented the idea that the constitution was the early stabilizing force and the Northwest Ordinance the democratic force in American history. In drawing a limited parallel between 1787 and 1948, he indicated that, though history does not repeat itself and the contemporary situation is immeasurably more complex, the Constitutional Convention holds suggestive guidance for present day leadership.

Greatness Rooted Deep
In closing Professor Fischer emphasized that the greatness of the Constitution is rooted deep in the combined ability, capacity and personal character of the men who first drafted it and the successive generations which have lived creatively, critically and daringly under its offer of political democracy.

Miss Alice Black, regent of the DAR, presided at the business session held prior to the program. She announced that on October 11, 12 and 13 the annual DAR state conference will be held in Harrisburg at the Penn-Harris. Delegates and members were urged to attend.

Thomas Hunter, Gettysburg college student, sang several numbers including "The Lord Is My Light," Alltisen, "My Task," Ashford and "Recessional," DeKoven.

Hunter was accompanied by Mrs. S. F. Snyder.

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Benson included: Mrs. Anna Plank, Mrs. Lesbia Crouse, Mrs. Mark K. Eckert, Mrs. Mark A. Eckert, Mrs. J. R. Riden, Miss Mary Riden and Mrs. Robert A. Willis.

The next meeting of the group will be held November 5 at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. C. E. Bilheimer. Reports of delegates to the state convention will be made at that time.

EXPECT 200 AT CHEST MEETING MONDAY; OPENS $19,000 DRIVE

Approximately 200 solicitors, team captains, department heads and other officials of the Community Chest will meet Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the court house for a mass meeting marking the "kick-off" for the $19,000 Community Chest drive.

Actually the drive will not begin until Friday, October 8, and extend until Monday, October 18, providing the solicitors two week-ends, which will mean for most two pay check periods in which to make their cash contributions. The two week-end periods will also provide the solicitors with more time to visit the people on their lists and secure from them either cash, or pledges to pay certain amounts.

Those wishing to donate to the drive — and those in charge of the campaign hope that will be every man and woman in Gettysburg — may, if they wish, have an entire year in which to make their donations to the chest.

Have Year To Pay
If they wish, contributors can list the amount they plan to give during the year, and then the Community Chest will send them a bill for one-fourth of the amount at four different times during the year. That procedure, the chest hopes, will permit persons who want to give fairly large sums a chance to make the donation without invoking financial hardships in doing so.

While most of the solicitors who will take part in the drive have already been selected, some of the team captains are still seeking to fill out their lists with names of persons who will conduct the door-to-door canvass of the community. Mrs. Henrietta Blocher, head of the residential section drive, has announced a number of solicitors, as turned in to her by the team captains.

Jacob Britcher, captain for the First ward, First precinct has listed the following canvassers:

Mrs. Jacob Britcher, Mrs. Mary Plank, Mrs. Sarah Buhrman, Mrs. Lawrence E. Oyler, Mrs. Charles Ogden, Mrs. Anna Eisenhart, Mrs. Glenn Minter, Mrs. J. G. Creager, Mrs. Mary Naugle, Mrs. Willis Eckert, Mrs. Howard Hummer, Mrs. Mares Sherman, Mrs. E. P. Miller, Miss Julia Peters, Miss Irene Day, Mrs. Doris Welshance, Mrs. Kathryn Stiller, Mrs. Stover Small, Miss Margaret Howard and Mrs. E. J. Nowicki.

Other Solicitors
Mrs. Erle Dearthoff, First ward, Second precinct captain, has listed her solicitors as follows: Miss Jennie Kimple, Mrs. Morris Gittlin, Mrs. Sol Beaver, Charles R. Wolfe, Mahlon Hartzell, Mrs. Lester Johnson, Mrs. Albert Bachman, Mrs. George Larkin, Mrs. Frank Britcher, Miss Martha Lentz, Mrs. F. K. Schwartz.

OCTOBER 15 IS NEW JAIL DATE

Adams county's new jail will be completed October 15.

That was the date set today by the contractor who reported he fully expects to be able to turn the jail over to the commissioners on that date.

Doors which have been delaying completion of the jail for some time have finally arrived, and have been hung, the contractor, Earl L. Cump, Chambersburg, announced. Only the finishing touches remain to be completed before the jail will be ready for occupancy.

Commissioners' Clerk Clarence C. Smith said today that the commissioners are planning an "open house" and dedicatory exercises for the jail soon after it is ready for use to permit everyone who wishes to inspect the new jail to do so before the prisoners are returned here from Daughin county jail where they are now confined.

Wanted: $1,560.10

Eighteen more contributors gave $162 to the Freedom Train Fund increasing the total donated thus far to $2,719.10. This leaves a balance of $1,560.90 to be donated to reach the goal of $4,280 to finance the week's Re-dedication program and the two-day exposition of the Freedom Train here November 19 and 20.

NINE DROWN IN SHIP-TUG CRASH

New York, Oct. 2 (AP)—Nine men were believed drowned in the Hudson River early today when a tugboat collided with a 12,000-ton Liberty ship, police reported.

Six men were rescued from the 115-foot tugboat Anne Marie Tracy which sank following a collision with the freighter Eliza J. Nicholson off the 25th Street Manhattan waterfront.

After the collision with the tug, the freighter veered into two barges the smaller vessel had in tow, police reported.

The cause of the collision was not determined.

Lifboats from the Nicholson and other vessels in the vicinity picked up the survivors, including five members of the tugboat crew and bargemen.

Fireboats, police launches and other craft continued the search for other survivors.

Authorities said they believed the sunken tug had a crew of 13 and that one man was aboard each of the 1,000-ton barges.

WRECK KILLS NEGRO SISTERS

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 2 (AP)—A Reading railroad one-car train overturned near here yesterday and carried two young negro sisters to violent death.

State police said the girls were Allen Hughes, 19, and Aquilla Hughes, 13, of Camp Meeting avenue, Skillman. Their mother, Mrs. Puritan Hughes, 39, escaped from the wreckage with only minor injuries, but was in hysterical condition, police added.

According to police, the three were going to the state fair here aboard the gas-propelled motor rail car when it jumped the track one mile south of Washington crossing in Hopewell at 11:41 a. m.

The only other passenger, Mrs. Nellie Phillips of Belle Mead, 65, and the engineer, Alexander Thompson of Newtown, Pa., 64, were admitted to Mercer hospital with cuts and burns of the arms and shoulders.

The train, on a shuttle run between Bound Brook and West Trenton, was switching onto a side track when it left the rails, and slid on its side for approximately 500 feet. Fire broke out in the baggage compartment and was put out by volunteer forces from Ewing township and Pennington.

More Motorists Pay Code Fines

Andrew W. Bricker, 57, Thomas R. 1, was fined $10 and costs by Justice of the Peace Claude Straley, New Oxford, on a charge of making an improper pass, state police of the Gettysburg sub-station, said today. They filed the charge.

A. D. Daniels, Haines City, Fla., paid a fine of $50 and costs to Justice of the Peace Roy Martin, Biglerville, on an overweight charge. His truck was loaded more than 10 per cent beyond the legal limit, state police said.

A 10-day notice has been sent by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder to Frank W. Larison, Gettysburg R. 3, on a charge of failing to stop at the scene of an accident. State police said a car driven by Larison struck a highway barricade on the Lincoln highway on September 24.

A 10-day notice has been sent by Justice of the Peace Snyder to Rita M. Neiderer, Hanover R. 3, charging her with a stop sign violation.

27 Arrested Here During September

Borough police made 27 arrests during September, according to the monthly report of Chief of Police Robert C. Harpster. Fourteen were for motor code violations, 11 on drunk and disorderly charges, one for surety of the peace and one for criminal assault.

There were six automobile accidents during the month, involving 11 cars and bicycles, the report shows. Damage was estimated at $340.

One bicycle was reported stolen and later recovered and one theft of an automobile was reported.

During September, not a single juvenile case came before the police department for investigation, Harpster's report says, but 263 other minor complaints were investigated.

Hanover Noses Out Maroons 4-13 In Thriller Friday Night Before 5,500 Fans

Gettysburg high school's football team rallied gallantly after spotting Hanover a pair of touchdowns in the opening period but missed an extra point after a touchdown in the final period and lost their initial South Penn conference game, 14-13, Friday evening at Hanover before approximately 5,500 fans, largest ever to watch these old rivals clash.

The game was a wild and woolly affair, fumbles changing the complexion of the contest time after time.

The game opened with Rightmire kicking to Bowling who returned to his 31. On the initial play the Maroons fumbled and Brady recovered or Hanover on the 30 to set the stage for the Nighthawks' first tally.

Hanover Scores Early
It took just five plays for Neale and Captain Rightmire to reel off a pair of first downs on the one-yard line before Rightmire crashed through center for the tally. Rightmire's kick for the point was wide out Gettysburg was off-side and on the next attempt Rightmire plunged through the line for the point.

Bob Hottle got off a long punt several plays later from his 37 yard line which officials ruled went out in Hanover's 21 but which sideline spectators declared remained in bounds as it rolled dead on about the three-yard line. From that point, the 21, the Reese-men drove to their second and final touchdown. Sweeping end runs by Neale and Rightmire, the former running 46 yards on one play, put the pigskin on Gettysburg's 20. A clipping penalty against the Nighthawks moved the ball back to the 32 but Neil immediately picked up 15 yards on a right end sweep. A pass, Rightmire to Gruver, moved the ball to the five.

The Forney-men rallied, and coupled with an off-side penalty against Hanover, threw their opponents back to the 13 but on the final attempt Rightmire whipped a pass to Leister in the end zone for the score. Again Rightmire plunged through for the point.

It was apparent the Maroons were quickly recovering from their first period jitters as the second quarter got underway. On the third play of the quarter Hottle booted to Neale who was dropped on his own three. However, the home club quickly pulled out of the tight spot when Neale scampered around right end to reach the 19. A first down on a pass, Rightmire to Gruver, put the ball at midfield where the Maroons braced and forced Rightmire to punt, the ball going into the end zone.

After failing to gain enough yardage for a first down, Gettysburg punted. Hottle's long boot being fumbled by Neale and recovered by Kenney Biesecker on the 9.

The Forney-men were quick to capitalize on the break as Bowling picked up four and Biesecker, three and two, scoring on the latter play. Kump added the point on a dropkick.

Miss Opportunities
Just before the half ended Biesecker snared a pass from Hottle and raced to Hanover's 17, barely being brought down on a dive by Neale. Before the teams could line up again the half ended.

Gettysburg had several golden scoring opportunities in the third period but failed to make good on any.

Herb Bowling recovered a fumble by Rightmire on the Hanover 47 shortly after the last half opened. Hottle raced to a first down on the 26. Two plays later Hanover recovered a Maroon fumble on the 17.

Guy Donaldson pounced on a fumble by Neale on the Hanover 36 three plays later. Biesecker and Hottle ripped through the Hanover team for a pair of first downs to reach the 15. On two tries Biesecker moved the ball to the 10 but another Maroon miscue allowed Hanover to recover on the 8.

A third great opportunity came shortly afterwards when Bowling intercepted a Rightmire aerial on the 40 and raced to Hanover's 6. Biesecker lost three and Hottle made it up on the next try. Bushman lost four yards on an attempted pass and on the next play a pass was grounded with Hanover taking over on the 10.

Maroons Tally
From that point Hanover opened a drive which brought four straight first downs to reach Gettysburg's 35 early in the final period. However, Teal fumbled and Gettysburg recovered on the 26.

A double pass which ended up with Hottle passing to Biesecker, was followed by a fumble, recovered by Gettysburg, and was good for a gain of 48 yards and put the ball on Hanover's 29.

On two tries Hottle carried the ball to the 15. Biesecker and Hottle picked up six-yards and then Kump entered the game to fire a pass to Westerdaahl who made a pretty nab in the end zone for the score.

With the final outcome dangling on the next play, Neale broke through the line to block Kump's dropkick in the try for the tying point.

Hanover took the following kick-off and held doggedly to the ball as the clock ran out.

Hanover's 15th In Row
The victory was the 15th straight for the unbeaten Nighthawks in a streak carrying over from 1946. Four straight have been won this year.

Kutztown State Teachers, a top contender for the teachers grid crown, took time off from loop competition for a trip to New Britain, Conn. And the Kutztown gridders, taking advantage of fumbles, walked the New Britain Teachers 37-7.

West Chester Teachers defeated Pennsylvania Military college 10-0 in the 16th annual grid meeting between the two schools. All the scoring was in the first half.

Moravian college lost out in the final period, 12-7, to Upsala college. The Greyhounds threatened to put across a touchdown in the final minute but a fumble put the game on ice for Upsala.

Franklin and Marshall went to Baltimore to help Johns Hopkins university open its football season and the invading Diplomats lost 7-6. Eddie Miller's conversion proved to be the margin of victory. And at Ithaca, N. Y., Lycoming college bowed to Ithaca college, 25-0.

INDIANS LOSE TO TIGERS AND RACE TIGHTENS

By BEN PHLEGAR
(AP Sports Writer)

For the third time in five years the American league pennant race won't be decided until the last day. For the first time in history it may end in a three-way tie come Sunday. Cleveland holds the upper hand. The Indians, although beaten yesterday, lead New York and Boston by one full game. Each of the three teams has two games left—Cleveland against Detroit in Cleveland and the Yankees and Red Sox against each other in Boston.

The Possibilities

These are the possibilities, providing rain doesn't interfere:

1. Cleveland can win the pennant by whipping the Tigers twice, regardless of what happens in Boston.

2. Cleveland can win by splitting with the Tigers, providing Boston and New York split.

3. Boston or New York can win the pennant if one team sweeps the Boston series while Cleveland loses twice to Detroit.

4. Boston or New York can tie Cleveland if one team sweeps the Boston series while the Indians split with Detroit.

5. All three teams can finish in a tie. This would happen if Boston and New York split and Cleveland loses twice.

Rain Could Be Factor

Since all regular season games must be completed by tomorrow night or go unplayed, rain could have a big hand in determining the winner.

If Cleveland is unable to play any further games, it will win the pennant regardless of the Boston series. And if Cleveland loses two while the Boston series is entirely washed out, New York and Boston will tie for the pennant with the Indians one percentage point behind. With so much at stake, however, they will make every possible effort to play every game.

The chances of a three-way deadlock became stronger yesterday when Detroit whipped Cleveland, 5-3. Boston and New York weren't scheduled.

Tigers Win in 9th

The Tigers struck for three runs in the ninth inning to gain the verdict. Bob Lemon, who was trying for the fourth time to win his 21st game, set up his own downfall.

Eddie Mayo, the first Detroit batter in the ninth, dribbled a slow roller down the third base line. Lemon fielded it and hit Mayo in the back with his throw. Mayo reached second base as the ball bounded away. Lemon settled down to strike out Johnny Bero and got two strikes on Johnny Groth, but walked him. He couldn't find the plate against Joe Ginsberg, the third straight pinch hitter, and walked him on five pitches.

In came Russ Christopher, the Indians' No. 1 relief man. He tried to keep the ball low to Johnny Lipon but the first four pitches stayed so low Lipon drew a walk, forcing in the tying run. Neil Berry bounced to Third Baseman Ken Keltner who threw to the plate for a force out. But the double play failed when Walt Judnich dropped Catcher Jim Hegan's throw at first.

Cards In Second Place

With the count two balls and one strike Jimmy Outlaw singled into center field, bringing home the winning runs.

In the only other American league action, the Browns and White Sox split a twilight-night doubleheader in Chicago. St. Louis won the first game, 4-0, behind the three-hit pitching of Cliff Fannin. Chicago won the second, 3-2.

St. Louis took over the second place in the National league by whipping Chicago, 6-4, on Ron Northey's three-run home run. Brooklyn slipped to third place by losing to the champion Boston Braves, 3-1. Vern Biekford won his 11th game for the Braves. Pittsburgh scored two runs in the ninth inning to edge Cincinnati, 2-1, after getting only two hits off Walker Cress in the first eight frames.

EDDIE JOOST OUT

Philadelphia, Oct. 2 (AP) — Eddie Joost, veteran Philadelphia Athletics shortstop, will miss the last two games of the season. Eddie was admitted to the Graduate hospital yesterday with an infection of the big toe on his left foot. Hospital officials said it is a recurrence of an old injury.

Single Point Can Satisfy Notre Dame

Pittsburgh, Oct. 2 (AP) — "I'll be satisfied to win by a single point again."

That's how Frank Leahy, Notre Dame's always pessimistic football coach, regards his team's chances today against the University of Pittsburgh.

Looking more like a cautious banker counting his receipts at the end of the day than one of the nation's top gridiron tutors, Leahy lamented: "We're looking for a hard battle from Pitt and we're going to have to hit on all eleven to win. Pitt gained 265 yards passing and 100 rushing against Southern Methodist last week and you can't discount that — SMU has one of the best teams in the country."

Pitt's coach Mike Milligan, trying to get the Panthers on the high road to victory once more, didn't have much to say about his team's chances. His only comment was that "Pitt would be in there fighting, every inch of the way."

49ERS HUMBLE ROCKETS 31-14

Chicago, Oct. 2 (AP) — The National football league moves into the pro grid spotlight this week-end with eight of the ten teams in action tomorrow and the other two on Monday.

Only one contest is on the All-America conference schedule tomorrow with two other games during the week. In the league's only game last night, the amazing San Francisco 49ers, paced by Frankie Albert, posted their sixth straight win, humbling the Chicago Rockets 31 to 14.

The win gave the 49ers a two-game victory edge over the defending champion Cleveland Browns who have won their first four games.

Tomorrow's single All-America contest pits Brooklyn, without a win in four games, against Buffalo which has one victory in four contests. On Tuesday night Cleveland plays at Baltimore, leading the eastern division with a 3-1 record, and on Thursday the Rockets go to Los Angeles to meet the Dons, who will be after their fourth win in six games.

Only the two Chicago teams in the National league — the Bears and defending champion Cardinals — will be idle tomorrow, but the teams, both undefeated and tied with Los Angeles for the western division lead each with one victory, meet in Comiskey park Monday night.

Tomorrow's NFL schedule sends Boston at Pittsburgh; Detroit at Green Bay; New York at Washington and Philadelphia at Los Angeles.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
QUALITY OF LIFE

I have just read a remarkable little book by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.
It is a book that every American should read—in fact it should be read by every thinking person, whether American or not. It is called
"Of Flight and Life."

Few books of recent years have so impressed me. It is a brief discussion of the scientific and moral forces that are in contest with each other.
He says that "Hiroshima was as far from the intention of the pure scientist
as was the Inquisition from the Sermon on the Mount."

I happened to be in Dearborn, Michigan, the day when Col. Lindbergh took his test flight that he writes about in this book. It was a graphic, dramatic flight 43,000 feet above Detroit. "This altitude flight at Willow Run," says the writer of this book, "taught me that in worshipping science man gains power but loses the
quality of life."

In itself this little book is superb writing, but it was written from the heart of the man, and thus does it take on significance. It was a message that had to be written, and so it was.
Says the writer: "I now realize that while God cannot be seen as tangibly as I had demanded as a child. His presence can be sensed in every sight and act and incident. I know that when man loses this sense he misses the true quality of life—the beauty of earth, its seasons and its skies; the brotherhood of men; the joy of wife and children."

The publishers of this book say that "the flight of his thought, in these pages, is like that flight of his,
so many years ago, across the lonely wastes of the Atlantic. It is as solitary and as daring." I found the reading exactly this. Col. Lindbergh has expressed what undoubtedly is in the minds of millions of people, both here in this western world and in most parts of the world. One of the closing sentences of this book is this: "We must draw strength from the forgotten virtues of simplicity, humility, contemplation, prayer. It requires a dedication beyond science, beyond self, but the rewards
are great, and it is our only hope."

Beyond all else in this world, beyond all science and all materialism, is this quality of life, without which all else withers away as useless.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Praise Where Due."

Just Folks

The Poet of the People
THE NEWSBOY

"Just the newsboy!" did you say,
Passing by from day to day,
Regularly, morn and night,
Glimpsed, then quickly out of sight?

Look once more with clearer eye.
It may be a priest goes by.

"Just the newsboy!" Look once more

As he passes by your door,
Swift is time, and brief the span
When the boy becomes a man.
It may be that younger small
Is the doctor you will call.

"Just the newsboy!" did you say?
There are men of fame today,
Artists, lawyers, surgeons wise,
Leaders of great enterprise,
Who were newsboys—did you know—
Not so very long ago.

"Just the newsboy!" Further look!
Some day you may buy his book;
Have him paint your grandchild's
face;
Call him in to plead your case,
Or before life ebbs away
Ask him at your bed to pray.

Back Where We Started

We're entering a new phase where it is no longer a great novelty to be the owner of a brand new car and the result of this is to be critical of the many things that can and do go wrong with new equipment. We also tend to forget that the cycle is bringing us right back to the sort of thing that used to be taken for granted in pew days when a new car often was considered a headache. I remember one staid spinster who always referred to the breaking in of a new car in terms that smacked more of poolroom conversation. Mistakes always are to be expected in the design and fabrication of anything
new, even in anything merely revised.
So if your list of gripes is growing just like that it easy. The factory will get around to taking care of these complaints in due course. Most companies "campaign" on their errors to the complete satisfaction of everyone involved. One company before the war spent five million dollars in a single year replacing all the frames of its convertibles.

Nothing to Worry About

If your car is one of those equipped with a parking brake at the front end of the propeller shaft don't be unduly alarmed if you hear a strange noise under the car some of these days, especially if you have been driving in the country. A friend of mine thought he was due for real trouble the other day only to discover that a twig from a tree had caught in the brake and was dragging along. It also snapped against the universal joints.

I have heard of cases where mud
has been tossed up to the parking brake, there to cake and produce some odd effects.

Garden Variety of Skip

We have all learned so much about automobiles through sheer necessity
it isn't any wonder that the many oddities in trouble tend to blind us to the plain old-fashioned things about ignition. Many a skip in the motor today is just due to a loose spark plug or a bit of oil on the breaker points. Most of the persistent skipping has been found to be due to plugs not being of a hot enough type to burn off oil that is pumped up past worn piston rings,
but owners prefer to worry over compression, carburetion and perhaps the coil. Not a few skips stem from bad insulation where the breaker arm attaches to the breaker plate of the distributor. And why forget about the ignition wires where they snap into the distributor cap?
Perhaps one of these is loose.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:
"I am indebted to a reader for raising the question as to why an accumulation of carbon in an engine
isn't something of an advantage,
since it raises compression. Carbon,
of course, does take up space,
but since it is a mark of inefficiency
it is invariably accompanied by worn piston rings and poor seating valves. In fact some carbon usually is trapped under the exhaust valves,
thus allowing compression leakage.
The reason the engine is more inclined to ping when it is badly carbonized is, not because compression has been raised, but simply because preignition has been increased. Carbon particles readily become incandescent, glow and thus fire the mixture too soon."

More to Consider

As the automobile races along toward new styling and design we who own and drive them find it necessary to speed up our knowledge of what makes the wheels go around as well as what makes them jam. The speedometer is a perfect example. Time was when it would be enough to know that the cable shouldn't be kinked or allowed to become dry of speedometer lube. We were told never to lubricate the cable more than two-thirds the way to the head
and, of course, the head unit itself should never be oiled. Now we have something new to consider. One company, for instance, has used three different length speedometer
cables in one year's run of cars.
When it comes to replacing cables
on this car you can realize how important it is to know the serial number of the car before ordering parts. If a cable is too long it will be quite noisy.

For Your Safety

Watch those directional signals
which are combined with the stop-lights. They make you think the car ahead is merely slowing down and that one of the stoplights is burned out.

"Hill and dale" roads often hide approaching cars which may be in a valley when you are starting to overtake the car ahead.
Shock absorbers are important in helping to check away on curves.
Keep them filled with fluid.

One for the Judge

I've never seen it to fail that when motorists get to playing tricks
on each other someone gets burned.
So it was the other day when husband and wife started out in their respective cars for their summer place. Milady went ahead and decided that she would maintain the lead even if his nibs tried to pass.
When the car behind started to pass

she not only failed to yield but kept boosting her speed. Finally at 55 the driver behind was still trying to get by and it looked like the laugh was on him. But you know how it goes.
Just then there was a blast from a siren as the police car shot around and pulled up ahead. Hubby, it seems, had stopped for gas and wasn't in the picture at all.

Remember These Two

If you want to test the engine, speed up in second or high, get things well warmed up, then suddenly slow down to 10 miles an hour
in high and see how the car runs.
It takes a well-tuned engine to run smoothly after such rough treatment.

If you are the last man in a line of cars, better watch your step. In event of a sudden stop of the line
you will have the most difficulty bringing your car to a halt, and your car will suffer the most damage if it collides.

SOS from the Joints

If your car ever should develop the special habit of emitting a peculiar squeak when accelerated from low speed, don't let it get you down.
Actually this is a sign of a common trouble and one easily remedied.
The universal joints are dry.

In the old days dry universals used to set up a constant squeal regardless of the car's speed. I remember stopping by the wayside to pump laundry soap into the joints just to keep them pacified. In these days joints are better built, better protected and fitted so well that they receive better lubrication for a longer period. But they have that peculiar habit of letting you know there is need for a trip to the service station when you are gaining speed from a standstill. That is because the joints are under special strain

at such times.

What's On Your Mind

Q. I have been puzzled by the action of the car's brakes. When starting in the morning the brake pedal goes to the floor, but after the engine warms up everything is fairly normal again. There seems to be enough fluid in the reservoir of the master cylinder. How can the engine have any effect on the brakes?
L. N. B.

A. It can't. I think you will find that you are building up air pressure by pumping on the pedal. Better check the whole system.

Q. What would cause the distributor parts to rust? I painted the cap about a year ago to check moisture
and can't see how it now gets inside.
L. McN.

A. You evidently plugged up the vent hole in the cap. Venting is needed to prevent inside sweating
of this distributor.

Q. I have been told that there is a filter especially designed to keep transmission lubricant clean, but I can't seem to locate this. Ever hear of anything on this order? Wm. G. N.

A. No such filter has come to my attention, but I think your informant was referring to a magnetized drain plug which can be used on any transmission. It attracts minute particles of metal chipped from the gears. You can use one of these in place of the conventional engine

drain plug, and for the rear axle housing.

Q. There's quite a lot of oil dripping from the engine of my car when the car stands at night. This seems to be coming from the rear side of the motor. Evidently there is also loss when I am on the road because oil mileage is lower than normal.
Does this look like anything serious?

AWARD MEDAL- POSTHUMOUSLY TO PA. SOLDIER

Washington, Oct. 2 (AP) — The nation's highest military honor has been awarded posthumously to a Pennsylvania soldier killed in battle after almost incredible exploits.

The War Department announced yesterday the Congressional Medal of Honor will be given to the widow of Guss Kefurt, staff sergeant from Sharon, Pa., who was credited with killing at least 28 Germans before a bullet tore through his throat.

Kefurt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kefurt, R. D. 5, Greenville, Pa., died December 24, 1944, while battling German infantry and tanks in France. The army said the presentation will be made to his widow in the near future.

Slain In Alsace

The action for which the decoration was awarded occurred at Bennwihr, in Alsace, when the Third Infantry Division relieved the 36th Division. Kefurt was platoon leader of K Company, Third Division, when it gained a position on the edge of the town. Kefurt made his way through an opening in a wall, to find himself confronted by about 15 SS troops. The sergeant sprayed them with fire from his sub-machine gun, killing 10 and taking five prisoners.

At another point in the battle, he crouched in a street, 30 yards from an enemy tank and directed artillery fire on the tank.

He maintained a three-man post in the center of town during the night, surrounded by Germans and fighting off repeated enemy attempts to penetrate American lines. The next morning during a renewed attack, Kefurt found a German Mark V tank blocking his way down the main street. He fired two grenades into the tank, forcing surrender of its crew and some supporting infantry. Then he led his platoon in a house-to-house advance until a German counterattack stopped the forward movement.

Disregarding a painful wound in his leg, Kefurt maintained a volume of fire which killed at least 15 Germans. He was still fighting three hours later when he was killed.

Son Of Paper Firm Head Is Killed

Erie, Pa., Oct. 2 (AP) — Norman D. Wilson, Jr., 31, son of the president of the Hammill Paper company, was struck and killed by a Nickel Plate passenger train Thursday at nearby Swanville crossing.

Cpl. L. Seymour Miller of the state police said Wilson and his wife were en route to the Kahkwa Golf club in their station wagon. Mrs. Wilson, who was driving, halted the car at the crossing because a train was coming.

Miller said the husband refused to wait, got out of the car and was struck by the locomotive of the Cleveland-to-Buffalo express. His body was carried about 200 feet before the train could be halted.

The Wilsons have two sons, Norman and Douglas.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our darling mother, Mrs. Frank Felix, who passed away two years ago today, October 2, 1946.

Home is not home, for mother's not there. Angels have taken her out of our care; Dark is her room and empty her chair; She's gone to that land, so peaceful and fair.

Sleep, Mother, Mother, sleep! Your tools are o'er; Sweet be your rest, often needed before; Well have we loved you, but God loved you more, He's called you away to that bright, happy shore.

So sadly missed by her daughters and June.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Susan E. Felix, my grandmother, who left us two years ago today, October 2, 1946.

However long my life may last, Whatever lands I view, Whatever joys or griefs are mine, I'll always think of you, By June.

TRUMAN ENDS 9,000-MILE CAMPAIGN TRIP

(By The Associated Press)
Washington Democrats lined up a 250-car motorcade to hail President Truman's return today as his home-state Republicans readied greetings to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, campaigning eastward through Missouri.

Some 16,000 members of the Truman-Barkley club were expected to be on hand when Mr. Truman's special train rolled into the capital's Union station at 10 a. m. (EST) to end a 9,000-mile vote hunt that carried him to the Pacific coast.

Next week the President turns the campaign tables on Dewey by carrying his drive to win a White House lease extension into the GOP candidate's home state of New York and next-door-neighbor Pennsylvania.

Dewey Returns Sunday
Dewey is due to return home Sunday night. Reports from Paris said his foreign affairs adviser, John Foster Dulles, was flying to Albany for a special conference with the New York governor.

With elections one month away, both men wound up their current campaigns with major talks last night summarizing the points they have presented to date.

The GOP campaign theme has been "unity," and Mr. Truman told voters in Charleston, W. Va., they can "achieve unity" in the Republic.

would take them on a "headlong dash toward another depression."

Quoting Dewey as having said "the 80th Congress delivered as no other congress ever did for the future of our country," Mr. Truman declared: "Apparently he will be glad to help deliver a lot more of the same kind of blows you got from the 80th Congress. But bigger blows — and faster and more of them x x x."

"But if you want something delivered for labor, for the farmers and small businessmen — there is just one way you can make your vote count. Vote the Democratic ticket," Dewey, speaking in Cheyenne, Wyo., lashed out at the Truman administration as he stressed his unity-for-peace theme.

Civilization, he said, is faced with the task of finding its way "out of a wilderness of confusion made by men not equal to responsibilities forced on them by history."

"In all the confusion of political debate over inflation and high prices, the simple and obvious steps for a competent government that wants to remove this threat to our strength and our progress remain to be taken," he said, adding: "It is a sorry thing that integrity and thrift and knowledge — virtues long honored in our country — should be so badly needed in our nation's capital."

YWCA Has Long

ner family, and for many years occupied by the late Irene Danner Reinwald, was formally turned over to the new organization at services on a Sunday afternoon by J. Donald Swope, who officiated in the absence of I. L. Taylor, executor of Mrs. Reinwald's estate. The building and accompanying trust fund from Mrs. Reinwald were accepted by Mrs. H. T. Weaver on behalf of the organization. The late Dr. G. D. Stahley eulogized Mrs. Reinwald. The late Rev. D. W. Woods gave the prayer of dedication. One hundred and twelve persons were present at the meeting.

In November of that year Mrs. Fischer was elected as the first president of the board of directors. The other officers were as follows: Mrs. Maude Wierman Kennedy, York Springs, vice president; Miss Helen Cunningham, Fairfield, secretary; Miss Emilie Scharf, treasurer. Miss Edna Albert, York Springs, presented by-laws for adoption. Original chairmen were Mrs. Kennedy, membership; Mrs. Charles F. Sanders, finance; Mrs. H. W. Raffensperger, girls' work; Mrs. Edith Hersh, house; Mrs. H. C. Pickering, service. The first executive secretary was Miss Metta Mitchell.

Formed G. R. Groups
Girl Reserves were organized in Arendtsville, Bendersville, Cashtown, Fairfield, York Springs and Gettysburg. Clubs organized were Business and Professional Women with 16 members; adult cooking club, Mrs. Raymond Shank, advisor, with 56 members, and a beginners' cooking club with 12 members. In March of that year, the Y.W.C.A. membership in the county was 350, with York Springs in the lead. In June Mrs. Hettie Linn was elected as the first house secretary. Successive executive secretaries were Miss Anne McFarlane and Miss Florence Stewart, the latter serving until April, 1935, when lack of funds for the work required her resignation. Since that time the work has been carried on by successive boards of directors. Past presidents have been Mrs. R. S. Saby, Mrs. C. F. Sanders, Mrs. W. H. Danforth, Mrs. A. A. Hughes, Mrs. W. C. Waltemyer, Mrs. Abdel Ross Wentz and Mrs. Richard A. Brown.

The present board comprises the following: President, Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler; vice president, Mrs. Floyd A. Carroll; secretary, Mrs. C. D. Schweizer; treasurer, Mrs. L. C. Kee-fauver; historian, Mrs. R. S. Saby; board members, Mrs. G. W. Lefever, Mrs. Wayne M. Keet, Mrs. A. H. Barr, Mrs. George S. Forney, Mrs. Bessie Idle, Mrs. Willis Doyle, Mrs. Donald Scott, Mrs. Jessie Easterday, Mrs. Bernard Murray, Mrs. Charles Lauver, Mrs. Elizabeth Hennig, Mrs. George Stauffer, all of Gettysburg, and Mrs. C. G. Bucher, Biglerville.

The complete statement of purpose of the Y.W.C.A. is: "To build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians. In this endeavor we seek to understand Jesus, to share His love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God."

Has Active Record
In the past the Y.W.C.A. has taken action urging the trustees of Gettysburg college to rescind action excluding girls from the college; worked with other groups in urging the passing of bills affecting working hours of women and children; in 1931 was active in securing signatures of 500 women and girls over 18 in Adams county to the petition to the International Disarmament conference to be held in Geneva in 1932; sponsored movement in 1932 for sex hygiene instruction, working through the county Ministerium and the public schools; protested Sunday movies in 1934; gave permission to a baby clinic to use the building twice a month; in 1935 started working for a county library and organized a colored Girl Reserve group; during World War II the "Y" office gave out the tickets to local girls for the USO dances; helped organize the church women of the town; opened a canteen for the young people; and has served the community wherever possible since its inception. Meals are served weekly to the Rotary club and many town and county organizations use the building as headquarters.

Official "Y" organizations at the present time are Y-Teen groups under the direction of Mrs. George Stauffer; and two clubs of young business women — the Annie Danner club, Mrs. William T. Timmins, Tr. president, and the Business and Professional Women's club, Miss Carolyn Rupp, president. The Y.W.C.A. for the last 13 years has been dependent upon an annual financial campaign for support, with the following totals — 1944, $2,000; 1945, $2,100; 1946, $3,112; 1947, $3,278; 1948, $3,000.

The employed personnel consists of a housekeeper, part time office secretary and part time janitor. Last year $2,100 was required for house maintenance, $900 for administration and $100 for committee work.

Mrs. Luella Musselman Arnold recently established a trust fund for the employment of a professional executive director but in spite of all efforts of the board this position has not yet been filled. There are over 300 vacancies in this type of position over the United States, many "Y" women having gone overseas to establish new organizations in war-torn countries. The Personnel committee, however, is in constant touch with the national Y.W.C.A. office in New York and will fill the position as soon as possible.
